

2011-2012 Lecture Programme

13th October: David Iacopini (University of Aberdeen)
The geology of Italian Wine (With wine tasting!)

27th October: John Logel (Talisman Oil and Gas)
Shale Gas: What's all the fuss about?

3rd November: Stuart Haszeldine (University of Edinburgh)
Carbon capture and storage: will it work for Scotland?

17th November: Rob Butler (University of Aberdeen)
Continental Collision and How the Crust Deforms: Early ideas from the Scottish Highlands to active deformation in the Himalayas.

1st December: Jan Zalasiewicz (University of Leicester)
The Anthropocene: a new epoch of geological time

15th December Christmas Lecture & Party: Steven Andrews (CASP)
Red Rocks in a Green Land

9th February: Peter Cawood (University of St. Andrews)
Making Mountains- Drivers and Consequences

23rd February: Simon Cuthbert (University of Western Scotland)
Eclogites and their Kin: Messengers from the Deep Earth

8th March: Tony Prave (University of St. Andrews)
Neoproterozoic Earth history as written in the Highlands

19th April: Graham Leslie (BGS)
Highland thrust tectonics reviewed in a digital world- would Peach and Horne approve?

3rd May: Tom Bradwell (BGS)
What happened to the last British Ice Sheet: New evidence from offshore Northern Scotland

17th May AGS Rock Auction and Member Travelogues

Check the Society website for details of the 2010-11 fieldtrips

Lectures take place in Lecture Theatre 4 of the Meston Building, Kings College, University of Aberdeen unless otherwise stated, at 6:30pm. Join us from 5:30pm for tea and coffee in the Map Room of the Department of Geology & Petroleum Geology, Meston Building.

Details of registration, membership fees and Committee Member contacts can be found on our website at <http://www.aberdeengeolsoc.org.uk/> or just come along to join.